Disclaimer: Evaluation and Use of Submitted Entries and Images

By submitting an entry to ArborAWARDS™ participants confirm that they have full ownership or appropriate permissions for all materials, including images, included in their submission. Participants grant Edge Ahead Associates a non-exclusive, royalty-free, worldwide license to use, reproduce, and display the submitted content for the purpose of judging, promoting, and publicizing the awards program, in both digital and print formats.

Edge Ahead Associates is not responsible for verifying the ownership of submitted materials. Any legal claims or disputes regarding intellectual property rights or permissions will be the sole responsibility of the participant. All decisions made by the judging panel are final and cannot be disputed. Participants acknowledge and accept that no appeals or reconsiderations will be entertained.

Images and content will not be used for purposes unrelated to the awards program without prior consent from the participants.

All proceeds, after covering the program costs, will be directed toward supporting student expenses for attending the ArborEXPO™. Edge Ahead Associates does not derive any financial benefit from this initiative.

By entering the awards program and signing below, participants agree to these terms.
